

Doug and Suzanne

Douglas Faust Blackledge and Suzanne Lee Stay (daughter of William Denis Stay and Patricia Lee Lorden) were married at 4 pm EDT on Wednesday, 30 October 2013 at Elbow Creek Gardens (a plant nursery/ landscaping business) in Eau Gallie, Brevard Co, Florida by the Reverend Ann Fuller. The couple wrote and presented their vows. At the ceremony in addition to Doug and Suzanne and Reverend Ann, was their photographer, Cherie Keel.¹ The newlyweds honeymooned in the Blue Ridge Mountains, a little north of Greenville, South Carolina.

Suzanne was born 15 November 1967 at 10:36pm in Bay Shore, NY. She is a registered staff pharmacist (Suzanne Stay, RPh) with Wal-Mart in Melbourne, FL, with 20 years of service as of May 2013. Suzanne did her pre-pharmacy studies at Clemson University and graduated with her BS in Pharmacy from the University of Florida in 1991. She received the David W. Ramsaur Award for top GPA (3.94/4.00) in her graduating class.²

² The College of Pharmacy at the University of Florida dates from 1923. In 1925, the College was granted membership in the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, the accrediting body for pharmacy education at the time, and the first D.W. Ramsaur Award for Distinguished Scholarship was presented that year. In 1935, the Florida State Legislature passed an act to permit women to enroll in the College of Pharmacy.
